

ANNE MCTAVISH NEW WORK

"While I continue to use other artists work as the basis for my work, I am exploring paint application in the style of Gerhard Richter and Jasper Johns."

"I love the textures and forms that can be achieved by using various tools to apply and manipulate the paint, including palette knives, sheetrock skimming blades, even combs, as well as brushes of different sizes."

