

The background is a dynamic, abstract composition of flowing, iridescent liquid. The colors range from deep blues and greens to bright yellows and oranges, creating a shimmering, ethereal effect. The liquid appears to be in motion, with various ripples and folds. Overlaid on this background is the text 'SKY' in a large, dark blue, serif font, and to its right, the text 'Open Call' and 'All mediums welcome' in a smaller, dark blue, serif font.

SKY

Open Call

All mediums welcome

All mediums welcome,
but the sky must be an important part of the subject matter. This does not necessarily mean artists must
submit a landscape.
Rene Magritte's
"Golconda" is a good example of this.
